CHOPPED TO BITS BY SATAN VAMPIRE IN A TOP HAT

By COLIN HURST news@sundaysport.co.uk

A SATAN-worshipper stabbed a man to death with a pair of scissors, then hacked him to pieces and drank his blood.

The maniac was dressed in a Jack the Ripper-style top hat and cape during the grisly ritual, police say.

Former head of Royal Marines hanged himself

THE former head of the Royal Marines died as a result of hanging after having "concerns about his marriage and service career", a hearing to open the inquest into his death was told.

Major General Matthew Holmes, 54, was found in a bedroom at his home in Winchester, Hampshire, on October 2.

Maj Gen Holmes (above), who had served in Northern Ireland, Kosovo, Iraq and Afghanistan, was Commandant General Royal Marines from 2019 until April this year.

Hampshire coroner Jason Pegg said: "It's suspected that Matthew Holmes had a number of concerns at the time of his death, including matters relating to his marriage and his service career."

The inquest was adjourned for a full hearing on February 10, 2022.

Thailand boost for sex tourists

SEX tourists are jumping for joy after Thailand revealed plans to end COVID quarantine requirements for fully vaccinated travellers from at least 10 low-risk nations from November 1.

PM Prayuth Chan-ocha admitted "this decision comes with some risk" but it is seen as a key step to revive the country's collapsed tourism sector.

The 10 nations seen as low risk include the UK, China, Germany and the US.

Thailand has been recording more than 10,000 positive infections daily since July.

JOBS BOUNCE BACK

Employment returns to pre-pandemic levels

THE number of UK workers on company payrolls has surged by more than 120,000 above pre-pandemic levels after a record jump in September as vacancies also remained above a million for the second month running, according to official figures.

The Office for National Statistics (ONS) said the number of payrolled workers rose by 207,000 between August and September to a record 29.2 million.

This was 122,000 higher than levels seen before the pandemic struck in February 2020.

The data also showed another record quarterly leap in job vacancies, up by 1.1 million between July and September.

And the rate of unemployment fell further to 4.5% between June and August.

Darren Morgan,

director of economic statistics at the ONS, said: "The jobs market has continued to recover from the effects of the coronavirus, with the number of employees on payroll in September now well exceeding pre-pandemic levels."

"Vacancies also reached a new one-month record in September, at nearly 1.2 million, with our latest estimates suggesting all industries have at least as many jobs on offer now as before the onset of COVID-19."

Chancellor Rishi Sunak said: "It's encouraging to see our Plan for Jobs working. The number of expected redundancies remained very low in September, there are more employees on payrolls than ever before and the unemployment rate has fallen for eight months in a row."

ENCOURAGING: Sunak

"We remain committed to helping people find great work, with an extra £500million to support hundreds of thousands back into employment and help the lowest paid progress in their careers."

Energy bailout 'flimsy sticking plaster' warning

A TAXPAYER-backed support package for energy-intensive businesses hit by the surge in gas prices may be no more than a "flimsy sticking plaster", industry leaders have warned.

Prime Minister Boris Johnson (above) is reportedly backing a plan being developed by Business Secretary Kwasi Kwarteng for state loans to firms threatened with closure over the winter.

Gareth Stace, the director general of the trade body UK Steel, said they had yet to see details of the proposals.

He said that without adequate support the industry faced heavy job losses, with plants being forced to close.

"The key test in this proposal is are we now going to be on an equal footing with steelmakers in Germany?" he said.

"If this package results in us still paying 80% more for energy than our competitors in continental Europe, then this will really be a flimsy sticking plaster on what is really a major crisis we are going through at the moment."

Shoppers snubbed stores in fuel crisis

SHOPPERS cut back on trips to the supermarket over the past month to save petrol amid Britain's fuel crisis, new figures have shown.

The latest Kantar data revealed that the average household made 15.5 store visits in the past four weeks, the lowest monthly figure since February.

It found that visits to forecourts in the south of England jumped by 66% on September 24 at the height of the fuel crisis.

Overall grocery sales fell 1.2% year-on-year in the 12 weeks to October 3, although they remained 8.1% higher than before COVID-19.

And online grocery sales were back on the up, rising by 12.4% against a 12.2% rise in September.

CHINA HAS 'ALREADY WON' WORLD WAR 3

Pentagon tech boss quits in fury

THE man in charge of the USA's defence computers said he quit because China has already won the tech war guaranteeing global dominance.

And he described some US government systems as mere "kindergarten level" in comparison.

The Pentagon's former software chief Nicolas Chaillan said there is "good reason to be angry" at the US failing to rise to China's cyber threat, even fearing that it puts his children's future at risk.

"We have no competing fighting chance against China in 15 to 20 years. Right now, it's already a done deal, it is already over, in my opinion," Chaillan, 37, raged. It's believed World War 3 will be fought in cyberspace rather than the battlefield.

By COLIN HURST
news@sundaysport.co.uk

And China are best placed to win that war.

Chaillan, who was the Pentagon's first chief software officer, said China will dominate the world's future by controlling everything from media narratives to geopolitics.

Cyber

He said the US, like Beijing, should have prioritised artificial intelligence, machine learning and cyber capabilities over traditional military spending like building new fighter jets.

"Whether it takes a war or not is kind of anecdotal," he said of his prediction of China's route to future world dominance.

He attacked Google for not working on AI with the US Defense Department, while Chinese companies are obliged to work with Beijing.

The US is also wasting time debating the ethics of AI while China makes "massive investment" and eschews such concerns, he said.

China has already secured dominance in the tech war because some US government cyber-defence systems are so dated, they are at "kindergarten level", he insisted.

"While we wasted time in bureaucracy, our adversaries moved further ahead," Chaillan wrote in a scathing letter on LinkedIn.

"At this point, I am just tired of continuously chasing support and money to do my job," he said of the pioneering Pentagon job that was "probably the most challenging and infuriating of my entire career".

Chaillan said he plans in the coming weeks to testify to Congress about the Chinese cyber threat to US supremacy, including in classified briefings.

A Pearson Institute/Associated Press poll shows that roughly three-quarters also eye the Chinese and Russian governments as major threats to the cybersecurity of the US government.

WE CAN'T COMPETE: Chaillan

MINISTER DEFENDS HANDLING OF PANDEMIC

A MINISTER defended the government's handling of the COVID-19 pandemic after a cross-party report from MPs concluded that serious errors cost thousands of lives.

Minister for the Cabinet Office Stephen Barclay told Sky News' Kay Burley the government "did take decisions to move quickly", including on vaccines, and that both scientists and ministers were acting on information they had at the time.

But he admitted he had "not had chance to read" the MPs' report, which was sent to government departments, including his own Cabinet Office.

Mr Barclay (left) said: "It was an unprecedented pandemic, we were learning about it as we went through and of course, with hindsight, there's things we know about it now that we didn't know at the time.

"Of course there are going to be lessons to learn, that's why we've committed to an inquiry, but the government took decisions at the time based on the scientific advice it received."

"But those scientists themselves were operating in a very new environment where they themselves were learning about the pandemic."

BET SHE SMELLS OF 'GENTLEMEN'S RELISH'

MEGAN Barton Hanson looked incredible as she sizzled in a new bikini snap.

The star, 26, who recently went under the knife for a corrective breast surgery, exuded confidence in a tiny green bikini which revealed her gym-honed frame.

The garment teased a glimpse of her hard-nipped teats, while a pair of cut-out bottoms helped to emphasise her legs.

But not everyone was happy to share Meg's joy over her re-shaped busters.

When the pictures were published on the website of the hate-filled Daily Mail, readers queued up to shower the Love Island beauty with sexist FILTH.

Vile

Hot Rod, from John o' Groats in the snowy north of Scotland, leered: "Bet she stinks of gentlemen's relish."

In this case, the gentlemen's relish being referred to is not the well-known toast-topping condiment, but hot SPUNK!

Another Mail fiend drooled: "Bring me the tissues," suggesting he suffered a spontaneous emission at the sight of busty Meg.

And yet another speculated, without any evidence: "Bet she's filth in bed."

Megan rose above such vile words and spoke about her op.

She said: "Since losing weight, my implants looked uneven, not how they did in Love Island. I wanted a correction."

"I want to be honest, open and transparent with my followers, not set unrealistic expectations."

"There's no shame in surgery if it makes you happy and you've researched a good, trusted surgeon and know the risks."

A pal said: "Megan is a prominent media personality and, alas, that means people think they have a right to talk about her being splattered from her pretty head to her dainty toes in spunk spurted from iron-hard cocks."

Ruth survives outer space crash

A WOMAN is thanking her lucky stars after a METEORITE smashed through her roof and crash-landed on her pillow while she slept.

Ruth Hamilton was snoozing in her home in Golden, a town in southeastern British Columbia, Canada, when she heard a crash and felt debris on her face.

Cops called to the scene thought it may be debris from a nearby building site, but experts confirmed the five-pound lump of rock had come from outer space.

Ruth plans to keep the rock as it is "kinda cool".

Surfer cheated Jaws death with punch to face

A SURFER survived a great white shark attack by punching it in the face.

Eric Steinley, 38, was sitting on his surfboard in Bodega Bay, California, when he felt something bite into his leg and drag him beneath the waves.

"The feeling was very heavy, like swimming with a bag of bricks on you," Steinley (above) said from his bed at the Santa Rosa Memorial Hospital's intensive care unit.

Reaching down with his right hand, he touched the predator's "massive face" and then "I grabbed it in the eye, not so much aggressively, just trying to figure out what it was."

He then punched the Jaws shark in its face, cutting his hand on its teeth in the process.

"It was such a measly punch compared to how big this creature was," he said.

"You can see just from grazing its teeth, I cut my hand."

DARLING BUDS OF MAY

By JAYNE FERGUSON

IT'S a staggering 30 years since The Darling Buds of May made Catherine Zeta Jones into an international megastar and catapulted her to Hollywood fame.

And now, because TV people notoriously cannot think of one original idea, the show is back.

Rebranded as The Larkins, the show has got a very 21st century racial makeover but remains, at heart, the harmless nostalgic tripe it always was.

Bradley Walsh takes over from David Jason as Pop Larkin, while Joanna Scanlon is Ma Larkin, taking the role made famous by Pam Ferris in the original.

And Mariette, who was played so brilliantly by Zeta Jones, is now played by Sabrina Bartlett.

But the big question is... How do the leading ladies' BOOBS measure up?

To help you settle this pressing question, we've got the old and the new Mariette and the old and new Ma Larkin, with their pernick busters out!

WHY MEGAN'S A DEVIL IN BED!

A-LIST couple of the moment Megan Fox and Machine Gun Kelly have sex that would "make Lucifer clutch his rosary".

Meg, 35, and Kelly, 31, have dated for a year after meeting on set of the film Midnight in the Switchgrass, following Fox's split from her husband Brian Austin Green in May 2020 after nearly 10 years of marriage.

Meg bragged in an interview that their romance was "the tale of two outcasts and star crossed lovers caught in the throes of a torrid, solar flare of a romance," featuring "feverish obsession... and the kind of sex that would make Lucifer clutch his rosary."

In the interview, Megan says Kelly was "what my heart was searching for".

"Famously, like, I'm an unusual person. And I had buried a lot of that because it didn't have a place to live," Megan said.

"I recognise so much of myself in him, and vice versa, and that locked-up part of me that I had put away."

"I'd always felt like there was that thing missing, that I'd given up on, that you're always seeking."

"But then you meet the person that completes that for you and you're like, 'Oh, this is what my heart was searching for. That's what that beacon was this whole time'."

Kelly said he didn't know what true love was until he met Meg.

"It's like, because you've been around the world and experienced so much shit, you think you know everything," he said.

"Then you are in the arms of your destiny and realise, 'I don't know shit yet'."

Pussycat Kim's signing up for Dancing on Ice

Other famous faces who have signed up include Coronation Street actress Sally Dynevor, Happy Mondays star Bez, Olympic BMX rider Kye Whyte, singer Rachel Stevens and former Strictly pro Brendan Cole.

Kimberly said in an interview: "I'm nervous, that ice is going to hit hard. I'm just excited to see what I can do on there. I'm up for a challenge!"

Kimberly will also make her theatre stage debut in 2022 as press secretary Kate Compton in political thriller Dead Lies.

Hate crimes hit record of 124K a year

THE number of hate crimes recorded by police in England and Wales has hit its highest level on record, with a 12 per cent rise in racially motivated incidents, official figures show.

There were 124,091 hate crimes recorded in the year to March 2021, according to Home Office statistics.

This comprises 92,052 race hate crimes, 6,377 religious hate crimes, 18,596 sexual-orientation hate crimes, 9,943 disability hate crimes and 2,799 transgender hate crimes.

Numbers have risen each year since records began in 2011-12.

The Home Office said the rises have been driven by improvements in recording, growing awareness and a better identification of what constitutes a hate crime.

COSMETICS billionaire Kylie Jenner has really got into the Halloween vibe.

The 24-year-old makeup mogul is promoting her limited edition makeup collection for her company Kylie Cosmetics, KYLIE X NIGHTMARE ON ELM STREET, in celebration of the spooky season.

And as part of her campaign imagery, the youngest Kardashian sister posed entirely nude in a pool of 'blood' in pictures shared to her 275 million followers.

"What kind of satanic shit is this?" one user questioned, while another said: "The fact that you find this appealing is actually horrifying."

Another asked: "How does this promote her makeup?!"

DENIES ASSAULT CHARGE: Sapper Samuel Webster

A BRITISH Army soldier scalded a colleague's privates by throwing boiling water over him after he stole a slice of Domino's pizza, a court martial heard.

Sapper Christian Dinsmore suffered 'blistered second degree burns to his groin and scrotum' and received treatment in hospital for three days after the incident sparked by a row over the pizza.

The court heard Sapper Samuel Webster had turned up at Sapper Dinsmore's room in barracks wearing a 'white mouth guard' and holding a large mug of boiling water.

After repeatedly banging on the door, Spr Webster allegedly threw the mug at Spr Dinsmore, who was wearing only boxer shorts, before kicking him in the face and shouting 'that will teach you'.

The court heard the pair fell out while on a rota for guard duty during the evening of March 27, 2020, at Swinton Barracks near Tidworth, Wiltshire.

Joke

Spr Webster, of 26 Engineer Regiment, had ordered a Domino's Pizza, leaving what he said was 'around three quarters' of the pizza in the guard room when he went back on duty.

But Spr Dinsmore, from Northern Ireland, helped himself to a slice.

Spr Webster later returned and confronted him about it before asking Spr Dinsmore to pay for the slice he'd taken, but was allegedly told to 'f*ck off'.

Spr Dinsmore told the court: "He asked me to pay him for the pizza but I told him I was not going to pay him for one slice of pizza, it's ridiculous. It's a joke."

Spr Dinsmore was awoken at around 1pm

By SUZIE SHELTON
news@sundaysport.co.uk

by someone knocking loudly and repeatedly on his door.

He said: "I opened the door in my boxers and Spr Webster was standing there with a white mouth guard in his mouth and a large mug in his hand."

"There was boiling water in the mug and he threw it at my right thigh and groin."

"He came into my room and I fell over. I tried to get up but he kicked me in the head and knocked me down again."

"He hit me on the nose and I punched him back, walking him down and out of my room."

Spr Dinsmore phoned his father in Northern Ireland who called the Royal Military Police.

Spr Webster denies a single charge of grievous bodily harm with intent, insisting he did not throw the boiling water and was just looking for payment for the pizza.

He said: "I knocked once on Dinsmore's room. It opened and I asked for the money for the pizza."

"He told me to f*ck off. He then went to hit me with his right hand and I moved back, dropping the mug. I guess that was when the scalding to his legs happened."

The trial continues.

DEVIL NUT IN TOP HAT CHOPPED UP HIS MATE

DEMON: Drawing and sick symbols where the victim (pictured) was killed

By COLIN HURST news@sundaysport.co.uk

A SATANIC nutjob wearing a top hat and cape killed and mutilated his pal, then drank his BLOOD before setting the corpse ablaze, cops say.

And when police found the scene of Antônio Carlos Pires de Lima's grisly murder, the room was daubed with bizarre devil worshipping symbols and a chilling picture of a DEMON.

The man arrested for the macabre killing has denied having committed the crime but remains securely locked up in a police cell.

Following a tip-off, an operation coordinated by police chief Rodrigo Carbone, found evidence that Antônio Carlos was murdered in an alleged "ghoulish ritual".

Horror

At the scene of the crime, drawings of a demon were identified on the wall, along with symbols such as the number 666, which is a biblical reference to the number of the beast.

There was also a poster for the popular 2018 Spanish horror series, Tell Me a Story.

The suspect, who has not been identified by cops, allegedly stabbed Antônio Carlos to death with a pair of scissors in Samambaia Norte, a grim suburb of Brazil's capital, Brasília.

According to police, the accused wore a black and red cape and a top hat to commit the crime.

Cops say the suspect also drank the victim's blood.

The suspect was identified by images from security cameras which he passed on the day of the crime, still wearing his bizarre costume, after cutting up and burning the victim's body.

According to sources, all that remained of Antônio Carlos was a fragment of charred spine and femur.

Sicko kills then bonks widow, 60

A TEENAGER faces the death penalty after he murdered a widow and then had sex with her DEAD BODY.

Cops say 19-year-old Surendar Mandia attempted to rape a 60-year-old widow in Dulmana, India.

When the widow resisted the boy first killed her and then shagged the corpse.

The accused has been charged with murder and necrophilia.

A senior police officer in the region said: "The accused after murdering the elderly widow and carrying out an act of necrophilia went to the woman's brother-in-law and narrated to him how and why he murdered the woman."

"After some vigorous questioning the accused has confessed his crime and has been charged."

Kidnapper killed ex's new lover and dumped body

A MAN allegedly kidnapped his ex-girlfriend's new boyfriend before killing him and dumping his body in the desert.

Jerssen Perez, 18, staked out his ex's house in Phoenix, Arizona, until 19-year-old Oscar Ortega came out.

Perez then forced Ortega into his car at gunpoint.

When Ortega texted his girlfriend he'd been kidnapped, Perez tried to snag his phone.

He then shot Ortega multiple times.

Perez dumped Ortega in the desert, then stuffed the dead man's clothes, bullet shells and other evidence in a backpack, which he hid in a large bush.

He later confessed the murder to his family and handed them the gun.

He led police to the body and other evidence after his family called cops.

Perez (above) had been planning the killing for a month.

He was slapped with charges including first-degree murder and kidnapping.

After the deadly shooting, Kortz reportedly drove to the police precinct to surrender.

A VILE vet has been jailed for nearly 23 years for recording videos of himself sexually abusing dogs.

Prentiss Madden, 40, was hit with a total of 272 months behind bars after pleading guilty to all charges, prosecutors with the US Attorney's Office of the Southern District of Florida announced.

The sicko vet made videos of himself engaged in sexual activity with dogs and shared them in online chats.

Porn

Investigators discovered the disturbing videos, as well as chats about bestiality, on his mobile phones.

Madden also accessed vile child porn via the file-sharing software Dropbox, storing "thousands" of horrifying files on his own account, according to prosecutors.

Homeland Security agents raided his home on February 24 and found files in which Madden discussed "the sexual abuse of animals" as well as multiple photos and videos depicting bestiality, according to court documents.

Madden was arrested in March for recording the bestiality videos while he was the medical director of Caring Hands Animal Hospital in Aventura, Miami-Dade County, Florida.

Videos showed some of the abuse taking place at the animal hospital, according to prosecutors.

Caring Hands Animal Hospital said they were "appalled" by the charges against Madden in a statement following his arrest.

"Our legal team and every single member of the Caring Hands family will be doing everything in our power to aid law enforcement and facilitate their investigation and prosecution," the animal hospital said.

MAN ENJOYED COUNTRY RUN... NAKED!

COPS are investigating after a naked man was spotted running around a secluded country lane.

Inspector Darren Taylor, of Mid Sussex Police, said the starkers runner had been spotted by the public around the Stoney Lane area near to the village of Ardingly, West Sussex.

"[The sighting] saw some of the team carry out an area search with the support of a drone to try to locate the male," Inspector Taylor said.

"No sign of the male and no further reports received."

The man is believed to be in his late 50s, Inspector Taylor added.

Two days in a row
bank robber busted

THEY say criminals always return to the scene of the crime... but a bungling bank robber didn't even wait a day before coming back to the branch he turned over.

Samuel Brown, 33, was busted after he tried to rob the same Fountain Valley, California, bank two days in a row.

In the first robbery, he took off with "a large amount of cash" after he slipped a stickup note to a teller at the branch.

But the dough apparently wasn't enough for Brown, who returned to the bank the next morning and tried to rob it again.

Cops arrived and arrested him.

Brown, of San Diego, is facing multiple robbery charges.

MAN SUES OVER WRONG RAPE AND MURDER RAP

A MAN who was exonerated of a 1983 rape and murder after serving 37 years in prison is now suing over his wrongful conviction, claiming that officers conspired with a DENTIST to put him in jail using unreliable beeswax moulds.

Robert DuBoise, 56, was freed in August 2020 after long-shelved, untested DNA evidence from a rape kit proved he was innocent of the slaying of 19-year-old Barbara Grams in Tampa, Florida.

DuBoise (below) is suing the City of Tampa, four police investigators and forensic dentist Dr Richard Souvion, according to a complaint filed in the Middle District of Florida.

"The only physical evidence implicating Mr. DuBoise was fabricated 'bite mark' evidence that supposedly matched Mr. DuBoise to an injury on the victim's body. The victim's injury was not a human bite mark at all," Daniel Marshall, an attorney for the Human Rights Defense Center, wrote in the lawsuit.

WE all love to see a lady without her bra.

While every bloke likes a lass in a sexy titling, the sight of an unrestricted pair of bouncy boobs is always a delight.

Well, today is No Bra Day.

And it's got a much more serious point than thrilling us blokes.

No Bra Day is an annual observance on October 13, a day during which women are encouraged to go braless as a means to encourage breast cancer awareness.

By COLIN HURST

news@sundaysport.co.uk

Users on social media are asked to post using the hashtag #nobraday to promote the awareness of breast cancer symptoms and to encourage gender equality.

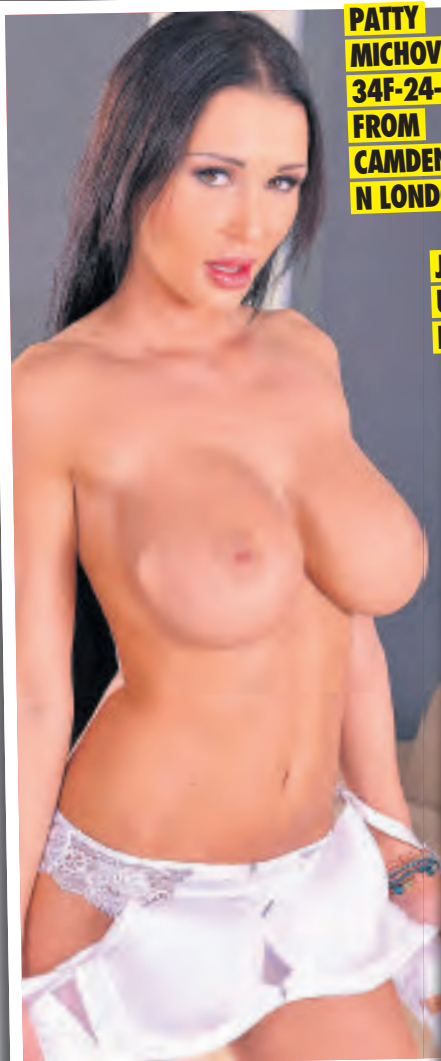

Embrace

Many users on social media sites also encourage women to post pictures of themselves not wearing a bra.

Some women embrace No Bra Day as a political statement, while others prefer the simple comfort of discarding what they view as a restrictive garment.

The observance has now spread worldwide after being spun out of a medical event in Toronto, Canada and was adapted by an anonymous individual who conceived of No Bra Day as a way to encourage women to enjoy being braless.

So you can enjoy the snaps on this and the following pages knowing you're helping women's health!

STARTING A GREAT NEW CRIME SERIES...COPS WHO

THE MANHUNT

AFTER a serial rapist terrorised the streets of south east London for years, leaving thousands of elderly people fearing for their lives, there seemed to be only one man who could catch such an evil criminal.

Unable to stop the serial rapist and burglar Delroy Grant from committing his heinous crimes, the police brought in Detective Chief Inspector Colin Sutton.

Sutton was the cop who put Milly Dowler killer Levi Bellfield behind bars.

He was Britain's top killer-catcher. And his next target was a serial rapist.

Grant carried out countless burglaries and sexual assaults between 1992 and 2009 across south east London, in Croydon, Bromley, Catford, Forest Hill, Dulwich, Sidcup, Orpington and Beckenham.

Grant, aka The Night Stalker, preyed on elderly women, and some men, who lived alone, often attacking them in their own beds at night. The youngest victim was 68, and the eldest 93.

He would also burgle them, but that was not his main motive.

Despite being an amiable neighbour and loving husband to a disabled wife, at night he just liked terrifying people.

His reign of terror went on for 17 years and he went undetected until Sutton took on the harrowing case...

THE Night Stalker had baffled the police for years.

Unable to identify the serial rapist, who persecuted pensioners in south east London, they turned to one man with a history of hunting down Britain's worst criminals, DCI Colin Sutton.

The top cop and his team were responsible for locking up Milly Dowler killer Levi Bellfield, with the first series of ITV drama Manhunt in 2019 focusing on the investigation into her murder and that of French student Amélie Delagrangue.

The gripping series saw actor Martin Clunes in the role of Sutton and followed the authorities as they tried to catch the man breaking into OAPs' homes.

The ITV drama was based on true accounts of events and Sutton himself, who was responsible for leading more than 30 successful murder investigations, including the high profile Bellfield case.

Initially, he was only supposed to take a look and give his advice on what could be improved. But he admitted he got totally drawn in and became determined to find the culprit.

Sutton said: "I was in part excited at the prospect of getting to grips with such a difficult and important case, and yet in part terrified that I would fail, and in some ways blemish the record and reputation I had worked so hard to earn in the Bellfield cases."

"Other colleagues said to me, 'You must be mad'. They saw it as a no-win situation."

By IAN BURNS

news@sundaysport.co.uk

"It was so difficult and people had been trying for so long and nothing had seemed to work, and why should you work."

"And they may have been right, but we had a bit of good fortune and it did work."

"It's right to say I was terrified of that, but I suppose that was a great motivation to me as well that if I am going to avoid that, the only way I can avoid that is by taking on and succeeding."

Illusions

"I had no illusions that what I was about to embark on would be easy, either professionally or personally."

"Nor could I take co-operation from my colleagues for granted."

Many thought Sutton should have retired after the Bellfield cases and go on to do lectures for six months before retiring. There may have been little hope of him succeeding, but the detective felt he had more to offer and a lot of fight still left in him.

He added: "There was one colleague who said it was a poisoned chalice. He said there was no way I could come out of it successfully. Thankfully, he was wrong."

Working with Detective Superintendent Simon Morgan and the Minstead team, the detective set out a strategy.

He believed he could catch the Night Stalker, focusing a vast surveillance operation around a key area of south east London.

Scores of additional officers were deployed to invisibly saturate the target area on a nightly basis and Grant was finally caught in the act of committing a burglary in the early hours of November 15, 2009.

It was actually the first night Sutton hadn't been at work after doing 18 hour days for two weeks when he received the phone call at 1.20am saying: "I think we've got him."

Chilling

He jumped out of bed, had a shower and went to the police station to speak to Grant, who he spoke to about cricket and describes as being "relaxed and calm".

The ex-cop explained: "He was just a chilling

CAUGHT: ITV drama shows how Sutton (Clunes) and his team track down and nab killer Grant sort of bloke you might have had a beer in a bar with after a cricket match.

"He was so ordinary. A great contrast to Bellfield, who was just pugnacious and repulsive all the time."

In March 2011, Grant, then 53, was convicted of 29 offences, including burglary, rape and sexual assault, and given four life sentences on three counts of rape and one of attempted rape.

The rapist was also given concurrent eight-year sentences for seven indecent assaults, and concurrent six-year sentences for 18 burglaries and attempted burglaries.

Now 64, he is serving his time in notoriously tough HMP Belmarsh. Asked if the case affected him, Sutton said: "There was one victim, a wonderfully dignified, well-spoken lady, who took my hand and confided to me that she had been indecently assaulted.

"It was so poignant and really upsetting. It was as much as I could do not to burst into tears there and then, holding onto her hand.

"She died six weeks later. She didn't eat again. She just gave up. Moments like that are pretty rare, probably a handful I can think of in 30 years, and that was certainly the last one and probably the most impactful one.

Spirit

"She represented all the spirit of stoicism that these old people, the victims, displayed.

"They came from a completely different generation and had gone through all sorts of difficulties and privations during the war, and rationing afterwards.

"They had seen tough times and had had to be quite stoic about things, and they carried that forward into being victims of the Night Stalker.

"This lady, just sitting there holding my hand, just brought all that into sharp focus. It was a really memorable, tough moment."

The detective retired from the police a year after the Night Stalker was arrested and the first job he did next was delivering flowers for a florist in Surrey.

As well as having a short term contract doing investigations for Trading Standards, he then started working on various TV shows, presenting and writing documentaries for Sky Crime.

Hands-on

ITV drama Manhunt is based on Sutton's own diaries and he was very hands-on during the filming process.

But one thing the real-life detective had an issue with is Martin Clunes always wearing a cardigan while playing him on-screen.

He explained: "I turned up with one on when we did the cast and crew screening for the first one, which went down well with the wardrobe man."

All four episodes of Manhunt: The Night Stalker are available on the ITV Hub now.

KILLER SLEPT WITH VICTIM'S CORPSE

HELD: Michael Despres (above) killed his girlfriend at home

Beast then dumped body of fiancée at supermarket

A HANDYMAN confessed to killing his fiancée and sleeping next to her dead body before then leaving the corpse in a pickup truck at a supermarket car park.

The body of Jeanine Bishop, 67, was discovered at a Walmart in Sebastian, Florida, after police responded to a report of a woman being spotted in a truck who was possibly deceased, Police Chief Daniel Acosta said in a statement.

Michael John Despres, 56, was at the Walmart and gave investigators "cryptic accounts" about his whereabouts before his fiancée's body was found, Acosta said.

"He confessed to killing Ms Bishop in their shared residence and later transporting her body to the parking lot of the Walmart, where he staged the incident," Acosta added.

An investigation into the murder is ongoing, with evidence being collected from Despres's home and workplace, as well as his vehicle and Bishop's car.

Angry

Despres told cops he had been contemplating killing his fiancée for several days because he was "angry" and made a weapon using rope and two handles to strangle her.

Cops also found signs

By BRAD CHADWICK
news@sundaysport.co.uk

of strangulation and pronounced red spots near Ms Bishop's eyes and during interview with detectives, Despres admitted strangling Bishop as she sat in a kitchen chair.

Clothes

He told cops he then moved her body to their bed and slept next to her that night before changing her clothes and putting her corpse in the pickup truck.

Despres told cops he then put a bicycle inside his van and drove to Walmart before riding the bike back to his home in Sebastian.

Despres is currently being held at the Indian River County Jail without bail.

It's unclear if he has hired a lawyer yet.

JUSTIN DUNN'S ROOM 101

WHAT'S ANNOYING HIM THIS WEEK?

Why do these 'experts' always pick on the poor?

THE "experts" are back with yet another wheeze to save the world from itself.

To do this, to ensure the future welfare of polar bears, they are suggesting putting up the price of red meat and milk.

This will ensure that it's too expensive to buy, and thus we'll consume a lot less of it.

That means less cows in the fields, which presumably means fewer cow farts, so fewer clouds of methane gas belching into the atmosphere, which means the less the ice will melt and far more happy polar bears.

Not that having more polar bears is necessarily a good thing, especially if you're a slightly chubby seal cub wearing a decent sprinkle of seasoning.

And why is it that the only bloody thing the "experts" ever come up with is to make stuff more expensive for the average man and woman in the street?

Grotesque

What they're really saying is, look, we get paid lots of money by the taxpayer in order to come up with fancy ideas about what you plebs can, or cannot, spend your own money on.

We reckon you've had enough milk to last you a lifetime and, frankly, it's about time you started eating grass instead of meat.

(Although surely if we all start eating grass, we'll all start farting like cows, which would cancel out any gains from having fewer farting cows while there are far more farting humans).

It is also a less than subtle way of saying poor people should not be allowed nice things.

That while it's perfectly acceptable for Sir Lancelot and Lady Penelope to order a £900 gold leaf-coated tomahawk steak from that Salt Bae nutter, it's not if you haven't won the lottery that week.

That enjoying a pint of full fat is quite all right should you be of the gentry, but not if you drink it from the bottle and sport a milk moustache for half the day.

It is also a grotesque admission that we will happily blame poor people for the planet's ills, while only occasionally slugging off those who travel by private jet or in luxury limousines.

God only knows how they would police it, either.

Presumably you'll receive a harsh slap on the back of your hand as you reach for a couple of sirloins on the supermarket shelf – but only if you're wearing a tracksuit.

Milk will then become a sort of contraband, smuggled into houses under the cover of darkness lest the lactose police catch you up to your necks in liquid calcium.

We won't identify the rich by how many cars they have in their garages any more.

Instead, we'll just look into their fridges and count up all their fancy dairy products.

Meanwhile, polar bears – not the most placid of creatures in the first place – will rapidly flourish, take over the world and spend the rest of time devouring us instead of seal cubs.

And only then will the "experts" be happy, despite the fact they are also on the menu.

House row teen gunned down mum and dad

A TEENAGER was locked up on murder charges after allegedly admitting to police that he tried to "kill" his parents, according to court papers.

Adnan Pelinkovic, 18, made the chilling statement after shooting both his parents in the family's home in Staten Island, New York.

"I did try to kill them," the criminal complaint said. "I shot my dad."

His mother, Minire Pelinkovic, 51, was shot in the chest during a family dispute and was rushed to Staten Island University Hospital, where she was later pronounced dead.

The accused gunman's father, Enver Pelinkovic, 54, was wounded, police said.

Initial reports said the elder Pelinkovic had been slashed. Adnan Pelinkovic (above) was charged with murder, attempted murder, attempted assault and illegal gun possession.

He will appear in court on Friday.

Woman whacked with snowshoe after refusing cig

A WOMAN was twatted in the face with a SHOWSHOE after she declined to give a cigarette to the attacker.

Stacy Scribner was sitting on a bench in Burlington, Vermont, when the suspect hit her twice in the face with the winter footwear, surveillance footage showed.

"I want him behind bars," she reportedly said. "He broke my nose!"

The attack was random, cops said.

"We have no idea who this individual is," Deputy Chief Matt Sullivan reportedly said.

"We need the public's assistance in identifying him to hold him accountable for this horrific and senseless act of violence."

Ms Scribner needed stitches and is having treatment for a broken nose.

TITTY PICS MISS BEGGED TEENS FOR SEX

X-RATED MESSAGES:
Arnold said
'pussy was aching for hard cock'

HER social media channels are littered with sizzling snaps of her incredible figure.

And Demi Rose was at it again when she took to Instagram to share pictures of herself posing completely NAKED.

The model, 26, looked sensational as she posed up a storm in a beach hut during her Mexico vacation while preparing to take a dip in a hot tub.

One fan said: "I'd like to watch her on the toilet."

A RANDY school miss sent teen lads photos showing her fondling her naked breasts along with messages begging the boys for sex.

Jennifer Arnold, 40, said her "pussy was aching for hard cock" and she was "thirsty for come" in her mouth in X-rated messages sent from her home in Wagoner, Oklahoma.

The Wagoner County Sheriff's Office says it received a report on July 1 in reference to a complaint of an adult female sending nude photos and soliciting sexual conduct with a minor.

Deputies say during the investigation they found Arnold sent partial nude photos to a 13-year-old and a 14-year-old boy she had befriended and talked with on social media.

They also discovered that Arnold offered to send a 15-year-old boy sexual photos and solicited sexual photos.

Innocent

Arnold was booked into the Wagoner County Jail for three counts of Solicit Sexual Conduct from a Minor by Use of Technology.

The Sheriff's Office says she posted bail and was released.

She was then seen heading into a law firm in Wagoner.

"She is presumed innocent until further order," said Assistant District Attorney Haley Robinson.

The sheriff's office says the alleged offences happened when Arnold was a supply teacher for the district.

However, it's unclear if Arnold directly taught any of the boys.

By SUZIE SHELTON

The affidavit and the sheriff's office have not said how Arnold came into contact with the teens.

The affidavit states none of the boys ever sent photos and cut off contact with Arnold after she sent the photos.

Wagoner County Sheriff Chris Elliott stated: "Cases of this type are always tough and disappointing."

"We live in a world where we try to protect our children from harm and the loss of innocence. It is a constant battle to remain vigilant against predators of all types."

"As my investigators began to uncover witnesses and victims in this case, it seemed that the more we probed, the more victims we found. "I feel we may find more victims."

"I'm proud of the work my investigators and staff did on this case. As Sheriff of Wagoner County, a father and a grandfather, it is always important to me to protect the most vulnerable."

THE WORLD FAMOUS AGONY Page

Dear Kelly,

MY mate's mum is a really great-looking blonde in her early 40s. I've fancied her for ages and a couple of weeks ago I started banging her. It was my 19th birthday and she had invited me to her place while my mate and his dad were at work to give me a "present". I'd been chatting to her the night before and she was flirting with me and ended up sucking my cock in my car after I gave her a lift home. She told me then that she couldn't invite me in for obvious reasons, but she did have a treat for my birthday. Bloody hell, did she! After she answered the door in just stockings and suspenders, I was hard within seconds. We went to bed and she gave me a really thorough sexual education. The only problem is that I'm worried that my mate will find out, not to mention his dad. What do you think?

JK, Lancs

Kelly says...

ONE way or another, you're going to get hurt!

Dear Kelly,

I WORK as a nightclub bouncer and as a result I get to shag quite a few fit babes. As you might expect, I'm quite a big bloke and the women seem to like my physique. They also seem to find my bald head and battered face an attraction. Just last week a couple of very tidy brunettes invited me back to their place at about four in the morning after I'd clocked off. It turned out that they were lesbians who enjoy a bit of cock now and then. It turned out to be a truly great experience. I screwed them both several times and they treated me to a lesbian show. The next night I pulled a mature blonde in her late 40s. She was brilliant in bed and let me do her in every hole. But all this casual sex isn't giving me the same buzz that it used to. Maybe I should find a regular girlfriend. What do you think?

FD, east London

Kelly says...

SOUNDS like you're maturing too.

I want to be more than a pal to my lesbo flatmate

Dear Kelly,

MY flatmate is a lesbian and I think I love her. I'm a 22-year-old guy and I've known her for years. We work together and decided to share a place, to save money. We've always got on well and have even had sex several times, too. Once she'd just broken up with her girlfriend and was a bit upset. I went down on her and licked her quim. And she took my cock in her mouth and gave me a really brilliant blowjob. Then I shagged her from behind and we both had terrific orgasms together. But a couple of nights later she brought another girl back and she's been seeing her ever since. Now I'm devastated. What should I do?

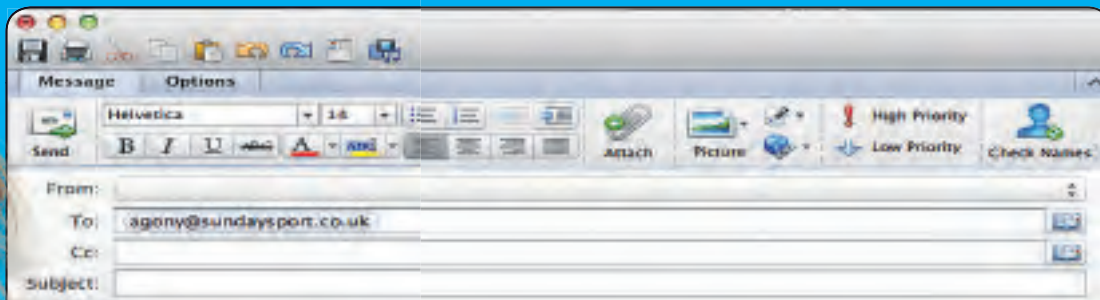

RD, south Yorkshire

Kelly says...

WAIT until they split up and give your pal a shoulder to cry on again. Or move out.

AGONY IS BROUGHT TO YOU IN ASSOCIATION

WELCOME to the World famous Sport Agony page! No other newspaper's agony aunts can offer the level of advice – or experience – than our own Agony Angels! This week KELLY M cGREGOR has been reading through your letters. And here's her advice for you...

Threesome solved problem of wanting girl's stunning pal

Dear Kelly,

MY girlfriend's best mate is a really gorgeous babe with a sensational body.

I ought to say straight out that my bird isn't too bad – in fact she can be quite a looker when she's standing next to most ordinary people.

But she pales in comparison with her friend.

Me and my girlfriend have been going out for four months now and when her mate's not around it's usually better for me because I don't spend all my time fretting about what I've missed out on.

Difficult

Anyway, it was all getting a bit difficult as I was starting to get obsessed about the other girl.

It wasn't really a logical thing to do, but I decided that I didn't want to see her mate again so I told my bird that she'd hit on me.

My girl went mad, as you might expect, and I wondered if I hadn't made a serious gaffe.

But then my girl said that she had a solution to our problem – a threesome!

She got more and more excited as she told me that it was a big fantasy of hers.

Naturally, I was more than happy to agree to her request.

I thought I'd died and gone to heaven the night we all stripped off and slipped into bed.

My bird kicked things off, snogging her gorgeous pal and then licking her nipples while caressing her fanny.

Her friend responded by parting my girl's legs and licking her intimately.

When I got the nod I wasted no time boning them both, losing my mess several times.

They then sucked me off and I exploded all over their faces.

We now have regular threesomes. I never stay floppy for long because as soon as they start having sex with each other I'm ready to go again.

How lucky am I!

MJ, Wiltshire

Dear Kelly,

MY boyfriend has recently grown a bushy hipster beard and although he looks like a tramp, it is pure heaven when he goes down on me.

I love the feeling of his bristles on my inner thighs as he laps away at my sopping wet fanny.

And I can't get enough of his tongue on my clit.

I'm having some of the best orgasms of my life.

But it's nagging away at me that he's still a public embarrassment.

What should I do?

PJ, south Wales

Kelly says...

KEEP enjoying the threesomes!

Kelly says...

EASY, just keep him indoors!

Sneaky brother boned my babe

Dear Kelly,

I RECENTLY got back from six months touring the world and I'd really been looking forward to seeing my hot blonde girlfriend again.

But when we got together, it was clear that something wasn't as it used to be.

Then I got a surprise when my younger brother called to her place for a brew and he seemed very sure of himself around her house.

Then I caught them at it through the kitchen window when I got back from the shops one day.

She was bent over the ironing board as he was shafting her from behind and I could hardly believe my eyes as I watched him sliding in and out of her snatch.

Then she turned round before sinking to her knees and taking his cock in her mouth.

Yelled

She sucked on him greedily, taking his full length deep into her throat, and then got down on all fours so he could give it to her doggy-style.

I was amazed when she yelled in ecstasy as she climaxed and my brother shot his hot spunk over her arse-cheeks.

I gave them a few minutes to get dressed before walking in.

They pretended that nothing had gone on and I felt insulted that two people so close to me could be so fking mean to me.

What can I do to try to resolve this?

GD, Sussex

Kelly says...

NOT a lot. Let her go.

Dear Kelly,

I WENT out with my mates a few weeks ago and in the course of a drunken night I felt myself getting hornier and hornier.

I have a girlfriend, but I put her to the back of my mind as I danced with a cracking brunette babe.

In the end, she asked me to take her home. It was obvious she was after a shag – and I must say I was raring to give her one.

The problem came when we had both stripped off and dived into bed.

I spent ages giving her oral and she later did the same for me.

But nothing she could do with her tongue or hand could raise my dick.

She was understanding about it, but at the back of my mind I felt unable to do the business because I was thinking deep down about my current girlfriend.

Anyway, we agreed to meet the next night at her place.

It was so different. I had a raging stalk-on from the moment I walked in and shagged her senseless for hours.

Now we've been at it like rabbits for the past few weeks.

I don't know what happened to change things, but she's a great girl and now I'm torn between my girlfriend and this stunna.

What can I do?

KW, Newcastle

Kelly says...

GO with your gut feeling.

#MY SEX FANTASY

‘There are so many more positions to pick with a threesome’

MY wildest fantasy is to invite another woman into the bedroom ... I'm bisexual and it would be a treat for both me and my fella!

A curvy, buxom blonde would be both of our types.

It would be so much fun. I've thought of a plan, too. I would advertise for a so-called 'unicorn' on a dating app.

We'd book a hotel room and meet in the bar and have a few drinks to get acquainted then take it upstairs.

I know my boyfriend would absolutely love to have two women give him a blowjob.

There are so many more positions to pick with a threesome.

I really get off on the idea of the other girl on her back on the bed and my bloke pounding her while I sit on her face. My man and me are face to face and we can kiss and he can caress my boobs at the same time.

What would also be super hot is my bloke on his back and us girls taking turns sitting on his cock and his face, while kissing and licking and sucking on each other's nipples.

Why have I not done this already?
I need to arrange this asap... I'm going to get on to it this weekend!

#HOT'N'HORNY

LUSTY Lauren Smethwick has a very naughty fantasy...

The 32C cracker, from Leeds, revealed: "I LOVE the idea of being a call girl, a high class one."

"Obviously, I don't want to sell my body, but I do like to role play."

"It feels so naughty getting dressed up super sexy and then behaving like a whore."

"Think Julia Roberts in the film Pretty Woman... she looked so hot in her thigh-high PVC boots."

Lauren added: "Role play gives you the chance to act out a naughty side to you."

"I love meeting my boyfriend in a hotel bar and pretending that he's a client."

"I get a real kick out of people looking at us, at my slutty outfit, and wondering if I'm a prostitute."

"Then we go to the hotel room and, of course, I insist he hands over my money first."

"Then I'm pure filth, as it's all about sex. And he must get his money's worth!"

IT'S finally time to say goodbye to the creepy Crawleys of Downton Abbey and hello to the horny hotties of buxom Bottomley Manor!

For all you red-blooded fellas who love your porn but are bored to tears by dull Downton Abbey this is your lucky day.

Released last week, the UK's most highly anticipated adult movie is available exclusively through the Sport's adult partner Private Shops and, for a limited time they're offering readers another £5 OFF the already low, low price.

Down On Abby is a big budget, full length adult masterpiece starring porn legend Ben Dover and a cast of the hottest adult stars around. It will transport you to Bottomley Manor, home to the Lord Grabhem (played by Ben Dover), his wife (and 2014 AVN nominee) Jasmine Jae, and their two young promiscuous step-daughters, Abby and Fanny.

The Grabhems have invited the Stiffies to dinner and their staff, led by butler Small and footman Master Bates, hurriedly prepare to receive their honoured guests.

But during preparations some members of staff have their own ideas of how to make the night go with a bang! As dinner approaches it seems everyone's got more than fancy nosh on their minds. Mind you, there is plenty of noshing as well as lots of other filth that will even cause a crease in Carson's keks.

We see plenty of R18 DVDs at the Sport but this one is really something special and one you MUST not miss!

This future classic stars Ava Dalush as Missy, Cathy Heaven as Lucy, Emma Leigh as Betty, Jasmine Jae as Lady Wanda Grabhem, Jasmine James as Fanny Grabhem, Jess West as Lady Stiffie, Lexi Lowe as Abby Grabhem, Ben Dover as Lord Will Grabhem, Big Bad Dave as Smithers and Clarke Kent as Master Bates.

Paul, from Greenwich, SE London, can't get enough of the Manchester-born stunna.

He'd caught a glimpse of her 32C boobs during a routine check of the prison cells and now wants another topless snap of the Claire.

He said: "She's a real stunna. I'd love to get my very own photo of her so I don't keep having to remember back to that cell!"

GINA

JUICY Gina S says she loves being on her back. But please don't get any thoughts that the 32E babe, of Brentwood in Essex, is some kind of nympho. The beauty revealed: "I just love lying in my bed on my day off. "It's even better now that it's getting a bit chilly outside."

"I have a really nice bed and I spent a fortune on posh cotton sheets and top-notch, fluffy pillows. "It's great to be snuggled up warm and comfy. "I'd stay there all day but I've got things to do." And no doubt Gina would have no shortage of fans willing to keep her company between the sheets...

AWESTRUCK: Diogo Dalot

Cristiano is Ron the mark for Dalot

DIOGO Dalot says playing alongside Cristiano Ronaldo has already made him a better player.

The Portugal legend came back to Man United this summer and has made a big impact at Old Trafford.

Ronaldo has scored an impressive five goals in six matches since his comeback.

And Dalot says he's made a big impact on his team-mates.

The right-back said: "My first memory was when he was at United, that's when I learnt all about him and really liked the way he played.

"I've spoken many times about Cristiano – he was a big reference for me growing up and then having the opportunity to meet him in the national team, and now being his team-mate.

"It's a very good achievement for me too because when you grow up you want to play with the best and, playing with the best, it's a very proud moment in my career."

Prepares

Dalot is the latest United player to say Ronaldo has made them raise their game off the pitch as well as on it.

He added: "I think it's the way he conducts himself and prepares himself for the games.

"It's another level. It's special to combine the way you saw him before and now you can see him behind the scenes as well, and combine everything.

"It's amazing to have that energy and that mentality, also, in the dressing room. I think he brings everybody up and that's so positive for us."

Dalot says he was a massive fan of Ronaldo even before playing alongside him.

He remembers one goal from 2009 when he scored against his beloved Porto.

Dalot added: "I was in the stands behind the goal and obviously I wasn't too happy because I was supporting Porto, but it was my first memory seeing him live.

"I tried to reach him when I was a kid and he was in the national team but my first memory is that game."

IT'S ALL HAPPENING AT ST JAMES'S

HOWEY THE LADS SLOWLY!

Toon should take time says Steve

NEWCASTLE legend Steve Howey is calling on the Toon Army to be patient after the takeover.

Tyneside has gone crazy after the world's richest sports owners bought the club from Mike Ashley.

There was literal dancing in the streets when the news was announced that the Saudi-backed PIF was now in charge.

They have a mere £600 BILLION in their bank account compared to a piffling £30 billion for Manchester City's moneybags owners.

Even Paris St Germain come nowhere near to the transfer budget Newcastle could have in the coming years.

Steve Howey was at Newcastle during their heyday under Kevin Keegan. The Toon could compete with the big boys in the market then and pulled off major coups like signing Alan Shearer from under the noses of Manchester United.

Now hopes are rising that the likes of Kylian Mbappe and Erling Haaland could be on their way to St James's as they splash cash.

But Howey hopes the Saudi owners take a fuller approach to owning the club.

City's sheikhs have sunk fortunes into the area around the Etihad and he would like to see something similar in Newcastle.

He said: "What Man City have done has been absolutely amazing.

"Not only with the training ground, the academy, the ground, the players, but also going out into the community and I think that's what they're aiming to do as well and bring Newcastle back together.

"The fans connected back to the club as well — it's definitely a possibility, absolutely a possibility.

"As I said, we can't get too carried away. We've got to be delighted with the news that we have new owners and then see where we go.

"I feel as though the new ownership will be absolutely amazing for the area, amazing for the club, amazing for the fans and the people but we have to just keep our feet on the ground at this moment."

Switch

There may not be signings of the size of an Mbappe coming soon but it looks as though the Newcastle squad will be getting an upgrade when the window opens in January. Jesse Lingard and James Tarkowski look set to make the switch from Manchester United and Burnley.

Lingard was persuaded to stay at Old Trafford by Ole Gunnar Solskjaer after his sparkling loan spell at West Ham last season.

But he has made just three subs appearances this season and knows he must leave to stay part of the England squad.

Tarkowski is a regular for the Clarets but is coming towards the end of his contract and could receive a huge wage boost by moving to the Toon.

A lot will depend on who the new manager is with Steve Bruce looking certain for the chop.

Steven Gerrard is being linked strongly, while Frank Lampard is also in the frame.

Should the latter be handed the hotseat, a number of Chelsea fringe players could be heading to the north-east.

Ross Barkley has struggled to make an impact since coming back to Stamford Bridge from his loan spell at Aston Villa. The 28-year-old has a point to prove and Thomas Tuchel would be happy to see the back of him.

Other targets might be tougher but not impossible to prise away from the west Londoners.

Ruben Loftus-Cheek had a strong relationship with Lampard and is another who hasn't broken into the side under the current Stamford Bridge gaffer.

Plan

He could have a future at the Toon along with Callum Hudson-Odoi who is highly rated but has not found a regular place in London.

He has been played largely as a wing-back when he would be better off further up the pitch.

Hakim Ziyech was the first player Lampard signed when he took over at Chelsea but things have not gone according to plan.

The former Ajax winger would be a straightforward signing and he could slot straight into the team.

Reports in Spain suggest Philippe Coutinho could be one the first major signing for the Saudis.

The 29-year-old has never really settled at Barcelona since his £140m move from Liverpool.

The Catalans are now strapped for cash and would like him off their wage bill. They would accept around £25m for the Brazilian whose Premier League experience would be a major asset.

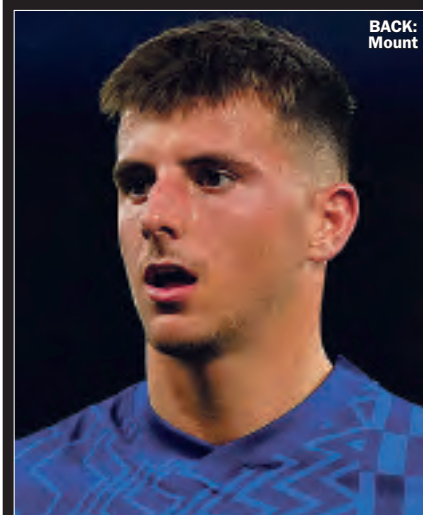

Nou Camp boss Ronald Koeman has not given Coutinho a chance despite their struggles in La Liga this season.

Spanish reports say there has been contact with Newcastle and the midfielder is keen on a return to English football.

Liverpool are not interested in bringing back their former player so there's no chance of a bidding war.

Mase the ace has mojo back after injury

MASON Mount says getting injured last month was a blessing in disguise.

The Chelsea midfielder was gutted to miss out on vital games against Manchester City and Juventus.

And the 22-year-old admits that he found it tough to keep up his intensity after going to the Euros with England.

He said: "I think after an experience like that and how far we got, it does take some time to kind of get over it, I'd say, and kind of reflect. But as soon as the next season starts you're on to the next season now and that's behind you."

"Maybe physically it still can take a toll, even though you've had a break and you're into the next season very quickly."

"So it's natural that happens and after playing many games in the normal season then to go to the Euros and play games and then to carry on after a short break to go straight into a pre-season, can take a toll."

Energetic

"So maybe I felt that a little bit more this season."

Mount has copped some stick from boss Thomas Tuchel for his level of performance this season.

Now he thinks he's ready to do himself justice and show better form.

Mount said: "I feel like now, obviously to miss a week when I was at Chelsea with a little injury, to get back and be in the England squad that little break makes you feel a bit more energetic and gives you that little boost."

"Even though you don't want to miss a game — I don't want to miss any game — it does help sometimes to kind of take a step back and let yourself recover, let your body recover, and then you're back at it."

Mount has also paid tribute to Phil Foden who he has been on England duty with.

He said of the Man City schemer: "I know what Phil is about."

"I've played against him many times, not just in a professional game but in the academy."

"I know what he's got in his locker and to see him do it on the big stage as he is doing, it's special."

"The passes he sees, the passes he picks out and the way he moves with the ball, he is a top, top, top player."

"You know the level we have in this England group, the players that are in this group, if you drop your standard even a little bit it's not going to be accepted."

DON'T GO STEVIE

Rangers fight to stop Toon signing Gerrard

RANGERS are battling to stop Steven Gerrard walking out to join Newcastle.

The Toon have just been taken over by the world's richest owners who are keen to bring in a new boss to replace Steve Bruce.

Gerrard is one of the main names in the frame along with Frank Lampard to take the hotseat. Now Rangers legend Ally McCoist admits he fears Stevie will be on his way to St James's Park.

He said: "Stevie had a great year, winning the title. We haven't started so well this year, however, we are still top of the league. "I'm slightly concerned.

Naturally, he would be a name that would be into the equation for Newcastle."

Former England midfielder Danny Murphy says the Toon should take their time before bringing in a new gaffer.

He said: "Is there someone out there who is going to be more equipped to do the job than Steve Bruce?"

"That's ultimately the question. Ok you can talk about the pleasing of the fans and the masses, but that doesn't necessarily mean you get Bruce out and bring someone in who's going to do it better.

"Coming into the Premier League, if you haven't been here before, who's out there more equipped than Bruce? No one jumps out at me."
